Respected brothers and sisters in Christ, Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Every year we observe our fasting during the Lenten Season. This year our lent season begins on the 14th of February.

Fasting is essential and important to our physical and spiritual life. It will help us to maintain a good physical health and grow in our spiritual life. Through fasting we receive a lot of blessing and benefits from our Lord. When Moses observed a fast for forty days and forty nights, he was completely transformed in the likeness and image of God. That is why we read that his face shined. Further, he also received guidelines for living a Godly and holy life. Like Moses, when we observe a fast, we will also see a transformation in our life and receive guidelines for our Godly life.

Secondly our Lord Jesus Christ observed fasting for forty days and forty nights (Mt. 4:3). Through His fast, He received the power of God to overcome the power of Satan and overcome the temptation which he faced. Through fasting we can overcome the power of evil spirit and its temptation in our lives.

Finally the people of Nineveh believed God and proclaimed a fast (Jonah 3:4). As a result, it helped to receive God's love and grace, and they were saved from the wrath of God. Similarly fasting will also help us to receive the love and grace of God and will save us from His wrath. During the lent season we are expected to observe the real fast and receive the blessings and benefits from our Lord.

May God bless all of you with His abundant grace.

ஸ்தேவான் என்றாலே உடனடியாக நமது நினைவில் வருவது முதலாம் இரத்தச்சாட்சி என்பதுவேயாகும். ஏனெனில் தன் வாழ்வை பெரிதா எண்ணாமல் "அவர் வாழ வேண்டுமெனில் நான் சாக வேண்டும்" என்ற இலட்சியத்தை அடிப்படையாகக் கொண்டு தன்னை இரத்தச் சாட்சியாக மரிக்க ஒப்புக் கொடுத்தவர். திருச்சபையின் விதை அல்லது வித்து இரத்தச் சாட்சிகளாகும். எனவே திருச்சபை உருவாக அவர் முதல் வித்தாக அமைந்தார் என்றால் மிகையாகாது. ஸ்தேவான் என்ற பெயரின் பொருள் முடிசூடியவர் என்பதாகும். எனவேதான் கத்தோலிக்க கிறிஸ்தவர்கள் இவரை முடியப்பர் என அழைக்கின்றனர். இவர் எருசலேமின் ஆதித்திருச்சபை தலைவர்களில் ஒருவராவார். இவர் எருசலேமில் வாழ்ந்த கிரேக்கத்தை முதல் மொழியாகக் கொண்ட யூத கிறிஸ்தவர்களுக்கும், பாலஸ்தீனத்திலிருந்த எபிரேயத்தை முதல் மொழியாகக் கொண்ட யூத கிறிஸ்தவர்களுக்கும் இடையே ஏற்பட்ட ஏற்ற தாழ்வுகளை, பிரிவினைகளை, தர்க்கங்களை தீர்ப்பதற்காக நியமிக்கப்பட்ட ஏழு தலைவர்களில் இவர் மிக முக்கியமானவர். இவரைக்குறித்து திருமறை கூறுவது அவர் மிக தைரியமான உறுதியான மனிதர் எதற்கும் அஞ்சாதவர். இரண்டாவது, அவர் ஞானமும் அறிவுக் கூர்மையும் உள்ளவர். முழுமையான உறுதியான விசுவாசமுள்ளவர். இறுதியாக பரிசுத்த ஆவியினால் நிரப்பப்பட்டவர். (அப். 6:5,8,10) உண்மையிலே அவர் மிகுந்த தைரியமும் அதிக துணிச்சலும் உள்ளவர். ஏனெனில் அப்பொழுது இருந்த ரோம அரசின் கிறிஸ்தவ விரோத கொள்கைகளும், ஜனகரிப் சங்கத்தின் கொலை வெறியும் அவருக்கு நன்கு தெரியும். இருப்பினும் மிகத் துணிச்சலோடு தைரியத்தோடு உண்மை

களையும் தவறுகளையும் பகிரங்கமாக எடுத்துக் கூறினார். இது யாராலும் அக்காலத்தில் செய்ய முடியாத ஒன்று.

இரண்டாவது அவர் முற்பிதாக்களின் காலம் முதல் இயேசுக் கிறிஸ்துவின் உயிர்தெழுதல் வரை மிக தெளிவும் திட்டமுமாக எடுத்துக் கூறியது அவர் எவ்வளவு ஞானமுள்ளவர் என்பதை நமக்கு எடுத்துக் காட்டுகிறது. அவர் மரணம் முடிவல்ல மறு உலக வாழ்வின் துவக்கம் என்று பூரணமான நம்பிக்கையும் விசுவாசத்தையும் உடையவரானதால் அந்த கொடூர மரணத்தை புன்முறுவலோடும், மகிழ்ச்சியோடும் ஏற்றுக்கொண்டார். தன்னை கல்லெறிந்து கொல்பவர் களுக்கும் மன்னிக்கும் மாண்பை வெளிப்படுத்தியதிலிருந்து அவருடை பரிசுத்த ஆவியின் நிறைவு உறுதிப்படுத்தப் பட்டிருக்கிறது. அவருடைய அர்ப்பணிப்பு நிறைந்த வாழ்வு ஊழித்திற்காக நன்றி செலுத்துவதோடு நின்றுவிடாமல் அவரைப்போல வாழ நம்மை அற்ப்பணிப்பதே உண்மையான சீடத்துவம் ஆகும்.

FACTS FROM THE BOOK OF 1 CHRONICLES

- 1 Chronicles is the 13th Book of the Bible and the Old Testament and 8th of the 12 books of History.
- Chronicle means “The Words. (accounts, events) of the Day.”
- The Book of 1 Chronicles does not specifically name its author but the Jewish Priest Ezra is traditionally considered as its author.
- 1 Chronicles is a combination of narrative history and genealogy.
- The Book of 1 Chronicles was more likely to be written between 450 and 425 B.C.
- 1 Chronicles bears some resemblance to 1 & 2 Samuel and 1 & 2 Kings.
- The Book of 1 Chronicles was written after the exile, and the purpose of this book is to help and encourage people returning to Israel in understanding how to worship God.
- The genealogies listed in the first 9 chapters of 1 Chronicles are one of the most accurate timelines found within the Bible
- The history in 1 Chronicles is mainly focused on the Southern Kingdom, the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Levi. These tribes tended to be more faithful to God.
- David commands centre stage in 1 Chronicles.
- The two books of Chronicles were originally written as one book, but were split into two in the Septuagint translation – The Septuagint translation was a gathering of seventy scholars to translate the Hebrew Bible into Greek.
- David, out of pride, took a census to see how many people he ruled over, because of this God sent a plague that killed 70,000 people.
- David greatly desired to build a temple for the Lord, but God forbid him from doing that saying, it was another's task.

Susanna Wesley – Mother of Methodism

Susanna Wesley came from a large family. Born in the year 1669, Susanna was the last of 25 children born to parents Samuel and Mary Annesley. Susanna's father, Samuel Annesley, was the pastor of a Puritan church in the town of Little St. Helen's. The family lived in a home attached to the church. Susanna enjoyed a happy childhood.

She was a brilliant and independent thinker. Susanna, unlike many women in her day, was taught how to read. Either through formal education or family tutoring, Susanna was educated and quite brilliant. She quickly formed her own opinions. Before her teenage years, Susanna had already decided to become a member of a different church denomination than the one in which her father pastored.

At age 19, she met and married Samuel Wesley, a curate in London, who was earning a meager income of £30 a year. Though Samuel had also come from a strong Non-Conformist family, the couple later decided to renounce dissent and abide by the Church of England.

She had a large family of her own. Susanna Wesley gave birth to 19 children. Sadly, 9 of her children died in infancy and she lived to see the death of three more children in their adulthood. Two of Susanna's sons, John and Charles, would become some of the most influential men in Christian history. Susanna thought that it was important for her daughters (as well as her sons) to receive a good education, so they might make sense of their faith and their world. When she found no proper textbooks for teaching her children, Susanna wrote her own.

She had a difficult marriage. Samuel Wesley Sr. was an impulsive man who routinely made unwise decisions. His actions would often land the Wesley's in debt, poverty, and, sometimes, danger. Once, Samuel abandoned his family for an entire year because of political disagreement with Susanna. He later returned to help the family recover from a house fire. Even into their children's adulthood, Samuel Sr. made decisions that inspired the resentment of the entire family.

Despite her difficult marriage, Susanna Wesley remained a faithful wife and mother. She constantly spent herself for her husband and children.

She had firm political opinions. In 1689, William III took the throne as the King of England. The Wesley household was divided in their opinions about him. Once, Samuel Sr. offered a prayer for King William and Susanna refused to say amen. This was the political disagreement that caused Samuel Sr. to abandon his family. By the time Samuel returned, a new ruler sat on the throne. The family was able to put the political tension to rest.

She loved routine. Susanna was known for her meticulous and disciplined personality. She kept a regular educational routine for her children as they were growing up. Susanna took her relationship to God as seriously as she did her duties as a wife and mother. Early in her life, she vowed that she would never spend more time in leisure entertainment than she did in prayer and Bible study. Even amid the most complex and busy years of her life as a mother, she still scheduled two hours each day for fellowship with God and time in His Word, and she adhered to that schedule faithfully.

Above everything else, Susanna Wesley was committed to Jesus. This enabled her to endure tragedy, poverty, and marital strife.

Just two years before she died Susanna attended a church service where she heard the words: "The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ which was given for me." Even after decades of faithfully following Jesus and teaching her children to do the same, Susanna was moved by those words. She said, “These words struck through my heart, and I knew that God for Christ's sake had forgiven me all my sins.”

The woman who kept a regular Bible study and time of prayer for over 50 years was struck anew by the truth of the gospel even in her old age!

Susanna's life and legacy speak to the life-changing power of the God of the Bible!

She never preached a sermon, published a book, or founded a church, yet Susanna Wesley is known as the Mother of Methodism. The example of faith and religious reverence she set for her children John and Charles inspired them to become powerful spiritual leaders, and to launch the Methodist movement.

Lesser known characters of the Bible - Cornelius

Cornelius is a rather mysterious character. He appears and disappears in the same Bible chapter, Acts 10. Cornelius was a Roman soldier who served under Herod Agrippa. He was a centurion (one hundred men under his command). Cornelius was the first Gentile to be admitted to the Christian Church, yet he is typical of thousands around the world; This Gentile soldier's marvellous moral character, and his noble influence, even among Jews, is well established. He was a worshipper of the one, true God. His life was characterized by piety. He prayed consistently and was generous to the poor. Moreover, the centurion was a force in his family, leading them in spiritual values.

Careful study of this passage yields a great deal of information about the centurion.

First, the officer referred to “God,” not gods. As stated above, Cornelius was a monotheist. As a rule, Gentiles subscribed to the notion that there were many “gods”

Second, Cornelius believed that God was an observer of human activity and interested therein. He confessed: “we are all here in the sight of God.” The phrase not only suggests that Heaven was aware of this meeting, but approved of it.

Third, the Gentile officer was aware that saving truth was embodied in an objective revelation which would issue from a man who had been appointed by God to instruct him. The group therefore was assembled to “hear” the things, i.e., “words,” to be spoken by Peter. Cornelius knew he had received no special message from the angel, detailing the content of what he must do in order to enjoy salvation.

Fourth, this centurion acknowledged the sovereignty of Almighty God. He confessed that the Lord had “commanded” certain things to which human beings were amenable, and he was anxious to humbly submit. There are several interesting matters here. “Commanded” translates the Greek term prostasso, literally “to arrange toward,” hence denotes to prescribe, order, or command something. Next, the verb is a passive voice form, suggesting that God is the giver of commands, and we humans are the receivers. We are not allowed in the driver's seat! The term is also in the perfect tense—reflecting an action that has occurred already but the results are abiding. The effect is this: God had commanded, and his will was to remain inviolate. There would be no disputing it. This was truly an amazing concept for this Gentile to have perceived.

Fifth, Cornelius recognized that he could not selectively obey the Lord. “All” was the goal. He said they were present to receive “all things” the Lord had commanded Peter to convey.

Sixth, the centurion conceded the authority of Peter, an apostle, as a spokesman for deity. He suggested that he and his family were there to hear from Peter the things that God commanded his apostle to tell them. Peter's words would carry as much weight as if the Lord had spoken to them personally.

The story of Cornelius in the Bible shows us how God responds to us, strategically expands his kingdom, and cares about bringing the gospel to the nations. Knowing these aspects of Cornelius's story changes our approach to life today.

Cornelius' understanding and disposition, as reflected in this solitary sentence, is stunning indeed. It truly reveals something of the depth of his soul. Are we willing to listen as he teaches us?
